Pestilence

Paved roads of deceit
Leading to all life's directions
So many went ahead
Self-denial at their horizonsReaching out for all
That's there to achieve
Despite your being
And what you believeWeakening of the truthful being
On the rise of a personality
Within your own creation of lies
Soon you'll beReaching out for all
That's there to achieve
Despite your being
And what you believeIn search of your entity
Betrayed by who you would like to be
A journey with your mind
Seeking traces you left behindEye-sights replaced by views
Driven by human desire
Fulfillment of your dreams
Have made you a liarReaching out for all
That's there to achieve
Despite your being
To what you believeIn search of your entity
Betrayed by who you would like to be
A journey with your mind
Seeking traces you left behindSoul search
Soul searchReaching out for all
That's there to achieve
Despite your being
And what you believeIn search of your entity
Betrayed by who you would like to be
Seeking traces you left behindSoul search
