Ambition Is Critical

The Blackout

Call me what you want

Ask me what you will

We are doing this

For nothin' but the thrillThis is all we know

This is all we need

I don't give a fuck

About how you feelI know you've waited every day

Let your jealousy fade

Or you won't see through your hate'Cause where we are, what we've found

Is we don't need to wear your crown

I don't mind, if it takes time

Every mistake made was mineAnd I don't mind

Bring it back, yeah

Bring it, bring it back, yeah

I don't mind

Bring it back, yeahGonna need more time

Just to make things right

We will bring you down

We are the dynamiteWho the fuck are you?

This is the life I lead

Is it good being you?

It's fucking good being meI know you've waited every day

Let your jealousy fade

Or you won't see through your hate'Cause where we are, what we've found

Is we don't need to wear your crown

I don't mind, if it takes time

Every mistake made was mineAnd I don't mind

Bring it back, yeah

Bring it, bring it back, yeah

I don't mind

Bring it back, yeahI don't mind

Bring it back, yeah

Bring it, bring it back, yeah

I don't mind

Bring it back, yeahWoah

Woo'Cause where we are, what we've found

Is we don't need to wear your crown

I don't mind, if it takes time

Every mistake made was mineAnd I don't mind

Bring it back, yeah
Bring it, bring it back, yeah
I don't mind
Bring it back, yeahI don't mind
Bring it back, yeah
Bring it, bring it back, yeah
I don't mind
Bring it back, yeahWoah
