

Defining Moment

NewSong

There comes a time in every heart
A time of real decision
When we reach the point of choosing
How we will live our lives All our hopes, all our dreams
Will rise up from that moment
The moment we surrender
And choose to follow Christ He's been waiting all our lives to hear us say
"I am Yours, Lord, take my hand and lead the way" When you believe He's all you need
That will be your defining moment
As you live your life walking in His light
Trusting Him completely
That will be, that will be your defining moment All I have, all I am is resting in His promise
The promise that He'll make me everything that I should be
I will live, I will die, for the cause He set before me
To take this love in side my heart for all the world to see All of heaven celebrates when they hear someone say
"I am Yours, Lord, take my hand and lead the way" When you believe He's all you need
That will be your defining moment
As you live your life walking in His light
Trusting Him completely
That will be, that will be your defining moment His amazing grace is such a mystery
How in an instant it can make your life complete When you believe He's all you need
That will be your defining moment
As you live your life walking in His light
Trusting Him completely When you believe He's all you need
That will be your defining moment
As you live your life walking in His light
Trusting Him completely
That will be, that will be your defining moment Your defining moment
Your defining moment
