

Diva

Melky Sedeck

I'm your diva, I'm your lover
I'm the other woman in your life
If you call me, I will answer
But I'm not your wife, no, I'm not your wife We've been kicking it for some time
You've been telling me those sweet, sweet lines
You want to get with me
Get in between the sheets I'm not usually the one to play
'Cause baby when you play you pay
You got a woman, I got a man let's keep it that way
Say, say, say what you want I'm your diva, I'm your lover
I'm the other woman in your life
If you call me, I will answer
But I'm not your wife, no, I'm not your wife When you told me how you feel
You said this feeling you felt was real
You said you gonna leave your wife
'Cause you're tired of living life Should I be flattered 'cause you looked in my eyes?
I'm not her, I don't fall for your lies
Just a baby in disguise
Say, say, say what you want? I'm your diva, I'm your lover
I'm the other woman in your life
If you call me, I will answer
But I'm not your wife, no, I'm not your wife What makes you think if you leave her
I'm gonna want to be her?
Don't you think I see how you treat her, nigga? What makes you think if you leave her
I'm gonna want to be her?
Don't you think I see how you treat her?
Say, say, say what you want? I'm your diva, I'm your lover
I'm the other woman in your life
If you call me, I will answer
But I'm not your wife, no, I'm not your wife I'm your diva, I'm your lover
I'm the other woman in your life
If you call me, I will answer
But I'm not your wife, no, I'm not your wife I'm your diva, I'm your diva
I'm your diva
