Shepherd

Boilermaker

Shepherd, Your sheep are weary
Cold and tired, battered and bruised and torn
And Shepherd, Your sheep are hungry
We got what we wanted but we still need something moreWe need to hear Your voice
Whatever You might say
We just need to hear Your voice
Show us the wayShepherd, Your sheep are lost
We chased our wants that we thought were needs
And now we can't get home
Shepherd, Your sheep are longing
We ate and we ran and then we played and we danced, but we're emptyWe need to hear Your voice
Whatever You might say
We just need to hear Your voice
Show us the way, won't You show us the wayAnd we need to hear Your voice
Whatever You might say
We just need to hear Your voice
Show us the way, please show usShepherd, these sheep are Yours
We tried to be king, but we don't want to anymore
