

Lay Down Your Arms, Girl

The 69 Eyes

i'm crawling back to you like a rattlesnake i got a poison runnin' thru burnin' down alive without you, my dear
things i
left behind
makes me
want to disappear surrender now
lay down your arms, girl
can't you see
for you i've been
kicked around the world
fallin' back on you
don't you believe
everything i said is true burnin' down alive
without you, my dear
makes me
want to disappear surrender now
for you i've been
kicked around the world no use tryin' to get your sorrows drowned don't you know
they just learned to swim around 'n' around
surrender now
lay down your arms, girl
kicked around the world
