Read My Mind

Alexz Johnson

I never understood
I thought we had it good
I never realized
Baby what a big supriseIt was just too quick for me
Didn't leave me time to breatheIt's a drag
To have a broken heart
If I can't hang around with you
Then that's the hardest part
And I really have say
That I hate to feel this way
It's a drag
To have a broken heartEverybody knows
How the story goes
You were letting go
Why was I the last to knowAnd it hit me suddenly
As I watched you leaveIt's a drag
To have a broken heart
If I can't hang around with you
Then that's the hardest part
And I really have say
That I hate to feel this way
It's a drag
To have a broken heartIt's just hard letting go
Don't say I told you so
Maybe somewhere down the road
Down the road[CHORUS]
