

Legal Kill

King's X

Only know what I believe
The rest is so absurd to me
I close my eyes so I cant seeBut the picture just gets clearer everyday
I read somewhere to learn is to remember
And I've learned we all forgotThere was peace in her before
But that was yesterday
But I can see the beauty that is here for me
The chance to live and walk free
From a legal killI know your side so very well
It makes no sense that I can tell
The smell of hell is what I smell
