Run

Pat Green

Finally free
Finally gone
Finally breathing again
Finally back out on my ownFinally here
In an otherwise empty room
Where there's no one here to tear me all apart[Chorus]
Yeah tonight I'm gonna go out
I'm gonna get a little wasted
Yeah I'm one of those guys
I'm one of those guysI gotta run
Gotta be free
Don't hold me down
No babyYeah and speakin' of faith
I finally found me a song
I'm in the same old place
But there's a lot less screamin' and carryin' on
Too much pain
Too much hate
Not enough fire
Now its way too late[Chorus]You're looking back at me with your pretty little eyes
And you want so bad for me to try and change
You tried that one before
Win the battle lose the war
Just count your losses baby, and go
Just count you losses baby, and goWell I gotta run, gotta be free
Don't hold me down
No baby
Yeah, I gotta run, I gotta be free
Don't hold me down
No babyYeah, I gotta run, I gotta be free
Don't hold me down
No baby
