Vicious Visions

Blind Illusion

(M. Biedermann)Voices ringing burns my ears
I see faces in the mirror
Defying gravity in my sleep
As I fly from dream to dream
And I dream...Ancient future blinds my eyes
Silencing screams that hypnotize
Ask myself what do I see?
No one's there to answer meOne day man will read what's written
Decide to steal what he wasn't given
Deadly knowledge twisting scriptures
Tapping into Hell's computerVicious visions warning you
Remember to forget what you once knew
Vicious visions telling me
Don't forget to remember what you used to beHeed these words
Don't listen to me
Unless you've no fear
