No Other

Tree63

Jesus, there can be no other
Jesus, I'm yours forever
There is no one else like You, Lord
No one elseBeloved of God, bright, shining morning star
How beautiful You have become to me
A treasure so deep, I've given my all to keep
Now that I've found You, I won't let You go
There's nothing on earth that could ever compare to YouJesus, there can be no other
Jesus, I'm yours forever
There is no one else like You, Lord
No, no one elseWho else could set free this soul from misery?
Once I was blind, but You have made me see
You're with me, You're here, I have nothing to fear
My Saviour I belong to You alone
There's nothing on earth that could ever compare to YouJesus, there can be no other
Jesus, I'm yours forever
There is no one else like You
There is no one else like You, Lord
No one else like You
No, no one elseLiving water, bread of life
The way, the truth and the lifeJesus, there can be no other
Jesus, I'm yours forever
There is no one else like You
There is no one elseJesus, there can be no other
Jesus, I'm yours forever
There is no one else like You
There is no one elseJesus, there can be no other
Jesus, I'm yours forever
There is no one else like You
There is no one else like You, no
No one elseThere is no body else, no
There is no, no body
