Seventh Sign

Yngwie Malmsteen

The earth is crumbling, the end is near
No one's listening, I'm filled with fear
Hear the warning in the prophet's word
Day by day, we're destroying this worldNo more water
No more blue skies
No one cares, no one tries
To save what we once hadWorld at war
(A world at war)
Rich and poor
(Rich and poor)Burn in hell
(Burn in hell)
Hear dooms days bells
(Dooms days bells)Ringing loud
(Ringing loud)
I see black clouds
We are making Lucifer so proudWorld at war
(A world at war)
Rich and poor
(Rich and poor)Burn in hell
(Burn in hell)
Hear dooms days bells
(Dooms days bells)Ringing loud
(Ringing loud)
I see black clouds
We are making Lucifer so proudBlind leading the blind
No one sees the seventh sign
We're left behindThere's no more hope, the day has come
What we have done, can't be undone
Too many years, we've lived in sin
We know for sure, the beast will winFight fire with fire, to start to run
Don't trust a liar, like we have done
We've lost the battle to the evil oneBlind leading the blind
No one sees the seventh sign
We're left behind
