

Guilty Pleasure

Classic Case

you don't yet realize that we are meant to be outside i watch you secretly devising ways to lure you into my trap like an animal stalking its prey you're my guilty pleasure every night surrender yourself to me

you're my guilty pleasure, you're my only vice surrender, surrender if i cannot have you than nobody ever will i'm not a violent gentleman, but i'll have my way everything i have i will give to you but don't make a sound you're my guilty pleasure every night
surrender yourself to me

surrender, surrender i want it and i need it i don't care if you let me you're my guilty pleasure every night
surrender yourself to me

surrender, surrender
