

Vital Signs

Gang of Youths

Body, cold but there's vital signs
And they picked your name out from the line
The sweetest thing assurance buys
Is the lesser deep and dark is our demise
Breaking out into the dust
They broke into your pickup truck and
I see the light surrounding us
This city's like the only the only thing I trust
So it's back to life
Growing still beneath the dark
We can run, and we can try, or we can find
Find a way
To Dive
To Dive
To Dive
No one's dying at your age and
This whole county is a cage
Of border lines and bitter rage
It's coming for us now, this final thing
What is pain, if there's a lot?
I found a wife, I found a wife but when
The money comes, the money stops
They're coming for us now that the money's gone
So it's back to life
Growing still beneath my soul
We can run, and we can try, or we can find
Find a way
To Dive
To Dive
To Dive
When I just want to see some vital signs
We were taught to fall asleep
And shut our eyes from everything
And see the way our little hearts
Could beat away the scary parts
Now we're old and full of life
And full of fear with little time
And we are ill, but that's today
Tomorrow "ill" could go away

And something somewhere
Called home
Paces back and forth
Body, cold but there's vital signs
And they pick your name out from the line
The sweetest thing assurance buys
Is the lesser deep and dark is our demise
And I will feed you with my own two hands
And I will feed you with my own two hands
