

Spiteful Child

Elton John

I don't want to worry you none, but I got the hurt on the run
I just cut out the poison that was in me so long
Watching you tear out my heart, only gave me the last laugh
Watching you tear out your hair, is gonna be the best part Oh, I've been shaken down by a spiteful child
I've slapped a worried frown on that evil smile
I've been taken down by a spiteful child
I've turned the tables round and it drives you wild Oh, you spiteful child You'd better be ready to run, now I've got you under the gun
I put my money on vengeance, before this race had begun
Breaking the spirit in me, only added to your conceit
Playing you at your own game, is going to make it complete Oh, I've been shaken down by a spiteful child Turn the tables round and it drives you wild Oh, you spiteful child I don't want to worry you none, but I got the hurt on the run
I just cut out the poison that was in me so long
Watching you tear out my heart, only gave me the last laugh
Watching you tear out your hair, is gonna be the best part Oh, I've been shaken down by a spiteful child
I've slapped a worried frown on that evil smile
I've been taken down by a spiteful child
I've turned the tables round and it drives you wild Oh, you spiteful child Spiteful
Spiteful
Spiteful Spiteful
Spiteful
Spiteful Saying your spiteful
Beautiful spiteful
Spiteful
