

Loud

Kutless

I put it all on the line when I talk to You
'Cuz if I keep it underground, it cant get through
I want for you to see the very best in me
My eyes are open wide and now Im breathing
Ive finally broken free, the fire burns in me You can try to turn me down
But I was born to be this loud
How can I be quiet now
When I believe it and I want it Im not gonna wait till Im out of time
Please forgive me if it seems like Im out of line
I hope that you believe, Im not your enemy
Im not the least bit concerned with my own way
But I cannot ignore the things Im living for You can try to turn me down
But I was born to be this loud
How can I be quiet now
When I believe it and I want it You can try to turn me down
But I was born to be this loud
How can I be quiet now
When I believe it and I want it You can try to turn me down
But I was born to be this loud
How can I be quiet now
When I believe it and I want it You can try to turn me down
But I was born to be this loud
How can I be quiet now
When I believe it and I want it Yeah, do you want it?
Yeah, do you want it?
