

Before First Light

Magnum

Every step I take along the way
Every hour of every single day
Your don't listen to a word I say
I stand patiently waiting here You left a message on the nearest wall
Just the same as the ones before
I don't believe it when you write you'll call
I stand patiently waiting here I want you here to help me through the night
Want you my dear don't leave before first light
I want you here to help me through the night
