With Me

Thorne Empire

Cigarette ashes flying in the air,
The wind blows them my way.
And charred filter left a scar on my hand.
I see you from far walking my way,
And the pain that I feel is no longer so real.

In your eyes I drown, your beauty consumes me whole.
Tell me, how many nights you didn't sleep?
Acting out your desires and love.
You're not tired? Playing in love with yourself at nights.
And now, once again, you're here ... You're with me ...

With me forget about all.
This night will seem like a dream.
I'll take you and embrace you like no other!
The cigarette smoke will cover us whole.
You will leave, when the sun comes again.
And the marks on the bed will remind me of what we had.

Erotic moonlight,
Will forbid the word "no."
And gently fell on the floor all of yours clothe...
The noise of the trees and the wind at night,
Will cover sensations.
And the flaming hearts will beat as one.

The touch of your hand will make me whisper,
That there is nothing stronger than my love,

You can take it all from me.
Tempting curves of the body on the white sheets,
I know I will last long,
After all, alcohol is now in me.
Pleasant groan eclipsed my mind,
You enjoy the ecstasy,
We are not bound to time.
In your eyes I see the shine, the desire ...
You feel happy with me ...

With me forget about all.

This night will seem like a dream.
I'll take you and embrace you like no other!
The cigarette smoke will cover us whole.
You will leave, when the sun comes again.
And the marks on the bed will remind me of what we had...

The moonlight on your curves makes me see bliss.
So beautiful and I can never resist.
The blood pressure goes through the roof.
Breasts will swing gently in the night.
Can you hear my heart beating?
Two bodies will merge in the night!

With me forget about all.
This night will seem like a dream.
I'll take you and embrace you like no other!
The cigarette smoke will cover us whole.
You will leave, when the sun comes again.
And the marks on the bed will remind me of what we had.
