

The Lighthouse

Craig Herbertson

Child of grace you wait for me
Out across the starlit see
My heart's a boat
You're love's a lighthouse
It shines so brightly
If stars could wonder
They'd wonder nightly
Who shines so brightly
So bright your love is At Coole wild swans will take the air
As I walk a winding stair
My heart's a prayer
Your love's an answer
It sounds so softly
Yet echoes madly
In contradiction
This towering prison
Resounds in silence
So soft your love is On Porty sands the waders stalk
As on the beach the seagulls squawk
My hearts a gull
Your love's the night sky
And should the night sky
Know it's moments
One moment soaring
Once more descending
And then the roaring
As through the wonder of flight
I see you blinding in light
And through the silence of night
Love is the answer
And like a lighthouse
How bright your loves is.
