Red Circle Underground

Wait for your weakness to fall out of sync
With all of your wasted despise

Sisters will say what other one thinks
Away from their hope covered eyes

So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
One more time
So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
One more time

Break out the gin,
bathe and barter with kin
Some may just take all they like

Oh now it seems out of place,
to waste all your faith
Awake from your hope covered eyes

So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
One more time
So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
So put me to sleep
One more time

(x2)
Oh, I don't know
If I ever want to wake up

(x4)
Lord, I don't know
If I'm ever gonna to wake up

Oh.....
I don't know

Oh.....
