Mirror Ball

Brother Cane

Spinning mirror ball hanging over me
Spinning mirror ball are you listening
Don't justify or hesitate
Feel the sorrow when you waitClose your eyes and don't ask why
You will need no alibi
Lucky mirror ball, hanging over me
Come and see me now
Come and show me, show me howI'm waiting, been standing on the line
Just waiting, I'm crossing over this time
Don't save me, looks like I'm finally out of my mindLucky mirror ball, never lie to me
Is it real at all, immortality?
Not satisfied in between
Living here with all these thingsI can see the other side
Do I dare to take that ride
Hold me now and I will wait
Dreams can lie and drift awaySpinning mirror ball are you listening
Spinning mirror ball never lie to me
