

My Ukulele

the stonewolf band

Oh we've been through some stormy hours and don't you know that I, I'm still standin tall. and all that's left is thinking of the time that we spent and now these days go by, and my heart grows stronger with desirewoah oh oh I, Might not have fortune and fame, fortune and fame I will play it on the grave stage of life we'll be rockin on my song I'm gonna be the only one who loves you, loves you I'm gonna be the only one who loves you, loves you, I I'm gonna be the only one who loves you, say hey hey hey Say I, I'm going to be the only oneOh we take one step at a time, and don't you know that I, I will be watching you from a far, and know that, I was so alone before I met you, These days go by, and my heart grows stronger with desire.Wo oh oh I, Might not have fortune and fame, fortune and fame I will, play it on the grave stage of life, we'll be rockin on my songI'm gonna be the only one who loves you, loves you I I'm gonna be the only one who loves you, loves you,
I'm gonna be the only one who loves you, say hey hey hey
I, I'm wanna be, yes I wanna be, come on we got to be the only one who loves you woah oh woah woah on woahI'm gonna be the only one that loves you I'm gonna be the only one that loves you
