He Will Answer

Byron Cage

He will answer when you call
He never sleeps, He never slumbers
Pick you up each time you fall
No need to ask no need to wonder
Yes, He sees you kneeling
Yes, He's already dealing
He will answer, He will answer
When you callHe will answer when you call
Don't have to fret, don't have to worry
He will be there through it all
May take some time, may be a hurry
Yes, His word is honest, Y
Yes, you'll make it I promise
He will answer, He will answer
When you call a batch of angels dispatch
Don't fear, they're on their way
Issues have no choice
His name, His voice
The earth, the winds obeyHe sees you kneeling
Yes, He's already dealing
He will answer, He will answer
When you call
He sees you kneeling
Yes, He's already dealing
He will answer, He will answer
He will answer, He will answer
When you call
