

Sorrow In The Wind (with Sharon Cheryl White)

Emmylou Harris

(Jean Ritchie) I hear the soft wind sighing
In every bush and tree
The sound of my heart crying
When you are far from me When we're apart, my darlin'
There's sorrow in the wind
When we're apart, my darlin'
Sweet sorrow in the wind You leave me in the morning
Your footsteps die away
Tho' not a leaf is stirring
I hear the wind all day When we're apart, my darlin'
There's sorrow in the wind
When we're apart, my darlin'
Sweet sorrow in the wind They say when love grows older
It dies and fades away
Yet all our life together
One ever brightening day When we're apart, my darlin'
There's sorrow in the wind
When we're apart, my darlin'
Sweet sorrow in the wind When we're apart, my darlin'
There's sorrow in the wind
When we're apart, my darlin'
Sweet sorrow in the wind
Sweet sorrow in the wind

Songwriters

RITCHIE, JEAN Published by

Lyrics © Peermusic Publishing, GEORDIE MUSIC PUBLISHING CO. Song Discussions is protected by U.S.
Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>