Prayers

Mohoram Atta

[Incomprehensible]Breathing in and breathing out
My head leaned back, my hands are tied
I stand in here alone I scream
Questions why
Days slip by and nights I taste
These memories run through my veins
Injecting me with one last kiss
Screaming why
This medication can't save me
And desperation takes hold of me
I wanted to believe in all of this
And I wanted to believe in you
(You believed in me)
All I am, all I have
Leads me down these roads again
Take my hand, show me the way
And never bring me back here
Determination is pushing me
And perseverance is what I bleed
I wanted to believe in all of this
And I wanted to believe in you
(You believed in me)
All I am, all I have
Leads me down these roads again
Take my hand, show me the way
And never bring me back here
These are my unanswered prayers
The time has come for me
To say goodbye
God please hear me calling
All I am, all I have
Leads me down these roads again
Take my hand, show me the way
And never bring me back here
Never bring me back here
Never bring me back
These are my unanswered prayers
The time has come for me
To say goodbye

God please hear me calling
