

Prayers

Mohoram Atta

[Incomprehensible]Breathing in and breathing out

My head leaned back, my hands are tied

I stand in here alone I scream

Questions why

Days slip by and nights I taste

These memories run through my veins

Injecting me with one last kiss

Screaming why

This medication can't save me

And desperation takes hold of me

I wanted to believe in all of this

And I wanted to believe in you

(You believed in me)

All I am, all I have

Leads me down these roads again

Take my hand, show me the way

And never bring me back here

Determination is pushing me

And perseverance is what I bleed

I wanted to believe in all of this

And I wanted to believe in you

(You believed in me)

All I am, all I have

Leads me down these roads again

Take my hand, show me the way

And never bring me back here

These are my unanswered prayers

The time has come for me

To say goodbye

God please hear me calling

All I am, all I have

Leads me down these roads again

Take my hand, show me the way

And never bring me back here

Never bring me back here

Never bring me back

These are my unanswered prayers

The time has come for me

To say goodbye

God please hear me calling
