

Without a Doubt

Split Enz

Live for the day when I'm left here on my own
With no one to betray
It's no wonder I prefer be a castaway
Who finds a friendly shoreWhen you have a friend
Then you have yourself a foe
My right to defend
Yours to scatter in one blow
My defenses, I'm defenselessHere in the dark, I guess
A few fuses have blown the bites back in the bark
And the gardens overgrown
I'm in a right mess, there's a tightness in my heartLike a fly in the ointment
Love makes my flesh creep
Love gets me hot and bothered
It's just a reward I can't reapLying alone on the lawn, babe
Hot sun overhead
Waiting for a breath of inspiration
To carry me away insteadWithout a doubt
Without a doubt
Working for precious little
Playing the second fiddleI've been living on broken promises
Living on guarantees
Sometimes at night when the moon is bright
You can see me down on my kneesI'm looking for home truths
An offer I can't refuse, a leap in the dark
A touch and go
I've got nothing left to lose?Without a doubt
Without a doubt
I'm learning back where I started
I'm learning, I'm broken heartedBut without a doubt
Without a doubt
I'm working for precious little
I'm playing the second fiddleWithout a doubt
Without a doubt
I'm learning back where I started
I'm learning, I'm broken heartedBut without a doubt
Without a doubtLive for the day when I'm left here on my own
With no one to betray
It's no wonder prefer to be a castaway
Who finds a friendly shoreWashed up on rocks

In the calm after the storm
I can run a amok
And every days a high day
A holiday, my hideaway
Ive got no reason left to stay
