Ashes Ashes

Hidden in Plain View

I hope this terrifies you a moral suicide which burns inside you
and it never lets you out Until you realize youre knee deep or buried alive in liesGo, go, go believe Its everything you need Take everything for granted Distorting every memory when you take them as your own 'cause You like it when you know Just what i'm thinkingI hope this terrifies you
a moral suicide which burns inside you
(and it never lets you out)
Until you realize your knee deep or buried alive in lies This time I wont let you winwhen you scream like a child we Act like children who run from their problems Blurring the visions we set in our sights
So open your eyes
and The kids are screaming at the tops of their lungs While they are pointing their fingers like theyre loaded guns Behind the curtains and backdrops the fire sparks
if these bridges burn we all fall down
We all fall down
We all fall down
We all fall down
We all fall downI hope this terrifies you I know it terrifies you I'll be ok just go just go
let the bridges burn
we all fall down
