

Pancake Land

Element Eighty

You don't know the truth so much more tha you knew lifeless and bleeding I'm screaming inside of youGoodbye I take a hold of everything you say and I throw it right back in your face if you don't like my reputation you can suck my dick like it ever even mattered what you said to me anyway like I give a shit about you anywaySo take me away from here cause I can't destroy this fear that always will be here I am alone in hereNothing can teach me No one can reach me seeping through the skin I'm screaming inside of youSo take me away from here cause I can't destroy this fear that always will be here Well I am alone in hereGoodbye
I take a hold of everything you say and I throw it right back in your face
if you don't like my reputation you can suck my dick
like I give a shit about you anywaynow you will never know me now you will never know me now you will never knowSo take me away from here cause I can't destroy this fear that always will be here well I am alone in here
