Move On

Boomkat

I saw you from afar standin' by the car
I watched you
I realized we were kinda alike
The way you dress, the way you chill, oh yeahAnd I felt a little crazy you know
'Cause I could have spilled my guts to you so soon
But boy, honey, I want you, yes I doMan, this is so strange, I'm feelin' somewhat drained
Take my mind away then clean up from yesterday
And just move on
Oh yeah, I'm gonna move onSo I proceeded to ask what you were up to that night
Yes I did
And I was struck down by a lightning when I found out
You had another loveI let my heart go too soon
So please don't let it happen to youMan, this is so strange, I'm feelin' somewhat drained
Take my mind away, then clean up from yesterday
And just move onI never look back, don't expect a second chance
But oh, are you killin' me in your b-boy stance?
Temptation, it's just a word to me, I don't give in to the absurdityI'm wanting something I can never have
I'd rather paint my nails or draw myself a honey bath
Oh, what do ya know
Look who's callin' me now that, I'm moving onMan, this is so strange, I'm feelin' somewhat drained
Take my mind away, then clean up from yesterdayMan, this is so strange, I'm feelin' somewhat drained
Take my mind away, then clean up this mess I've made
And just move on, oh yeahMove on, push on, dream on, scheme on, live on, give on Oh yeah, I'm gonna
Move on, push on, dream on, scheme on, live on, give on
