Love Your Man

Joey+Rory

Well, they say these days
If there ain't no way
Two people can't stay in love
And when it's said and done and the hard times come
Two out of free are gonna break up
Well I guess they might have their numbers right
But don't go down without a fight
You gotta just love your man
And hold his hand in yours
And when you don't think you can
You gotta love your man even more
And he stood by you
And he heard I do
Don't you mean those words you said?
But then you promised your heart that you'll never part
Till you are both stone cold dead
Sure, there's gonna be a time you wanna change your mind
But everything's gonna be fine
You gotta just love your man
And hold his hand in yours
And when you don't think you can
You gotta love your man even more
Well, it's gonna be tough
The going's gonna get rough
But if you love him enough
You won't ever give up
See that old couple sittin' there in the rocking chairs?
They've been together fifteen years
You could sure bet they didn't stay that way
Without a bunch of sweat and tears
But if you risk your house she made it all work out
She's gonna tell you even now
You gotta just
Well, you gotta just love your man
And hold his hand in yours
And when you don't think you can
You gotta love your man even more
When you don't think you can
You gotta just love your man
