Maxie Trip was a very lucky lady Maxie Trip was a very lucky girl Who you wanna be? Maxie Trip Who you wanna see? Maxie TripHave you got some time? Have you got some spine? Have you got something to begin with Or are you in a sin-wich? Have you got some nerve? Have you got some verve? Have you got something to depend on Or do you fender bend on? And if you say no Do you mean to go Down below the earth with nothing? Have you got my name? Have you got my fame? Have you got something to remind you of who you used to be? Or are you happy being me? Moonlight and roses Starlight and fairy tales that won't come true Good news for those who pine away The day comes shining through Kittens high-hattin' Sitting on satin with a host who's cat nip bound For those who seize the day The way is paved be yonderI didn't know the world was like this If I'd have known, then I'd be psychic If I had a clue, then maybe I'd be blue as a mockingbird Why do you think she laughs so much? I didn't know I had such problems If I'd have known, then I'd have solved them But looking down the road The Oklahoma Toast beckoning to me
