

That Was My Veil

PJ Harvey

It starts at daylight
I see him before my sad eyes
I hear him breathing, oh lover
Need you to lead me, no never thought that you'd leave That was my veil
That was my time
Once held secret
But now lies No words can heal my heart
Inside I'm broken, now it's done
Was she a pretty girl? Does she have pretty hair?
Was she soft spoken? Was there a love there? That was my veil
That was my time
Once held secret
But now lies Give back my veil
Give back my time
No more secret
You give me lies Give me back my veil
Give back my life
No more secret
You give me lies, lies
