Texas Cries

Element Eighty

Texas cries inside
but I feel you
Texas cries inside
I still feel you
I don't know why you run away when I need you and I don't know why you run awayWhy did you leave me
I thought you said you loved me
I thought you said you needed me
I guess I was wrong
Why did you leave me
I thought you said you loved me
I thought you said you needed me
I guess I was wrongTexas cries inside
but I feel you
Texas cries inside
I still feel you
I don't know why you run away when I need you
and I don't know why you run awayWhy did you leave me
I thought you said you loved me
I thought you said you needed me
I guess I was wrong
Why did you leave me
I thought you said you loved me
I thought you said you needed me
I guess I was wrongAnd now as I'm running out of rounds as I'm falling to the ground
can you hear the sound
cause I need you now as I'm running out of rounds
as I'm falling to the ground
can you hear the sound
cause I need you now cause I need you nowAnd why did you leave me
I thought you said you loved me
I thought you said you needed me
I guess I was wrong
