

Finally Found a Way

Ratham Stone

The pit the battle Iâ€™m in
Has left my armor in dents
I fought my part in the war

My boots are worn to the heel
Iâ€™m losing sight of whats real
I know what Iâ€™m looking

For, oh oh oh
oh, oh, oh, oh

I could alone walk this road on my own
You said the words I thought were lost
It wont be the same in this world if youâ€™re gone
I finally found a way, I finally found a way to your heart

With the short end of the stick Weâ€™re building walls brick by brick and healing wounds stitch by stitch

Deep in the forest its blind
Show me a mountain Iâ€™ll climb
It clear to the sky

Sky, oh, oh, oh
oh, oh, oh, oh

I could alone walk this road on my own
You said the words I thought were lost
It wont be the same in this world if youâ€™re gone
I finally found a way, I finally found a way to your heart

Now donâ€™t come again rain
Donâ€™t come again no
Come again stars
Donâ€™t come again rain
Donâ€™t come again no
Come again stars

I could alone walk this road on my own

You said the words I thought were lost
It wont be the same in this world if youâ€™re gone
I finally found a way, I finally found a way
It wont be the same
I finally found a way to your heart.
