

Everything Falls

Fee

You said you'd never leave or forsake me
When you said, this life is gonna shake me
And you said this world is gonna bring trouble on my soul
This I know(Chorus)

When everything falls apart your arms hold me together
When everything falls apart you're the only hope for this heart
When everything falls apart and my strength is gone
I find you mighty and strong, you keep holding on
You keep holding on When I see the darkness all around me
When I see that tragedy has found me
I still believe your faithful arms will never let me go
And still I know(Chorus) Sorrow will last for the night
But hope is rising with the sun, its rising with the sun
There will be storms in this life

But I know You will overcome, you have overcome(Chorus) x2 When everything falls apart your arms hold me together

When everything falls apart you're the only hope for this heart
When everything falls apart and my strength is gone
I find you mighty and strong, you keep holding on
You keep holding on
