Suffer

Duncan James

Yes, I know we're born a little bit surprised
We went a little far this time
Oh no and I said we've got too many thing to lose
Don't wanna live my life this way
From a moment that lingered too long
To a battle that can never be won
So wrong, yeah
Thought it's love we both want, it's a love we don't need
Let's sit here in silence, let out heats bleed
That it's hard to be strong when you're feeling so week
Till the night's over don't suffer alone, suffer with me
So here we are standing in an empty room
I'm trying not to look at you that way 'cause I care
Thought it's hurting me so much inside
I'm trying just to be your friend today
It's a song that should have never been sung
It's a race that should have never been run
So wrong, yeah
If we can't share the highs might as well share the pain
I know it's breaking every rule but it helps ease the strain
I'd rather sit here in sorrow again again
In the arms of one another's suffering
Thought it's love we both want, it's a love we don't need
Let's sit here in silence, let out heats bleed
That it's hard to be strong when you're feeling so week
Till the night's over don't suffer alone, suffer with me
