Pool Of Booze, Booze, Booza

Volbeat

With a fist full of courage
and a heart full of rage
Cry my wicked soul
That I would never change

Well that's okay fine with me
Got one hundred sides
What the hell more do you need

Don't even try to find
A reason in your mind
You'll never understand
we're just like night and day

LEAVE THIS SONG ALL UP TO ME

And then the fight came
Between the love and me
FUCKED another Whore

In a pool of booze booze booze

My honor will never be questioned
My loyalty will not be sold
The truth will come over you and destroy the empire
So hold on or let it go

With a fist full of courage
and a heart full of rage
Cry my wicked soul
That I would never change
Well that's okay fine with me

And then the fight came
Between the love and me
FUCKED another Whore

In a pool of booze booze booze

And then the fight came
Between the love and me
FUCKED another Whore

In a pool of booze booze booze

With a fist full of courage
and a heart full of rage
Cry my wicked soul
That I would never change
Well that's okay fine with me

Don't even try to find
A reason in your mind
You'll never understand
