

Own Life (feat. Anderson Paak)

Vindata

I can't be jumping out my seat for everybody smiling at me
That don't make me selfish baby, that don't make me mean
I got my own life
I got my own life
I can't be worried about no spacecraft, no artificial being
No that don't make me nervous baby, that don't mean a thing
I got my own life
I got my own life
And you should get a life of your own now
I got my own life
I got my own life
And you should get a life of your own now
I got my own life
I got my own life
Keep talking, ain't seeing nothing
Got a hundred million problems, you just wanna share something with me
Middle finger to the sky I wave
Double 7 and not a single fuck given today
And more commas, need more collars
And I been running at the mileage reach em on the paper chase
Ain't nobody tryna get in my way
I'm just tryna get a hold of my fate
I can't be jumping out my seat for everybody smiling at me
That don't make me selfish baby, that don't make me mean
I got my own life
I got my own life
I can't be worried about no spacecraft, no artificial being
No that don't make me nervous baby, that don't mean a thing
I got my own life
I got my own life
And you should get a life of your own now
I got my own life
I got my own life
And you should get a life of your own now
I got my own life
I got my own life
