

Starting Tomorrow

Carol Kidd

Darkness walks in front of you
Can't get through
Why are you escaping nothing?

Will you ever see the world as I do?
We're here today, don't let that slip away from you

We're not here to crush you
Like they do
Who you were is still there somewhere

Will you ever see the world as I do?
We're here today, don't let that slip away from you

Alone
Don't listen to the voices in your head
