noon(at

My name is silence
I live within
One taste of violence
One taste of skin
It could be none
It could be none other
It could be none
It could be none other
Im alive and I'm doing just fine
I'll admit, I was losing my mind
I'm alive and I'm doing just fine
As for you,
You're the one standing naked this time
My name is violence
I live in sin
I feed off the innocence of my own kin
It could be none
It could be none other
It could be none
It could be none other

Im alive and I'm doing just fine
I'll admit, I was losing my mind
I'm alive and I'm doing just fine
As for you,
You're the one standing naked this time
You're so sorry now
You're world's upside down
You're so sorry now
So sorry
My name is silence
I live within
One taste of violence
One taste of skin
I'm alive and I'm doing just fine
I'll admit, I was losing my mind
I'm alive and I'm doing just fine
I'll admit, I was losing my mind
I'm alive and I'm doing just fine

As for you,
You're the one standing naked this time
