No One Talks

Moya Brennan

Now no one talks, no one to listen
No one to laugh with to share a life
Now no one cries, no one to pray with
Now who will love?

Is this what you believe?
Is this what you believe?
That no one loves, no one to warm to
Does no one care?

Don't give up now
Don't give up the bit of blue sky
You've got to go to find it
Where all the lights shine brighter

Now no one calls, no one will answer
No one to fly with to hold a hand
Now no one sings, no one to run to
Who heals the heart?

Don't give up now
Don't give up the bit of blue sky
You've got to go to find it
Where all the lights shine brighter

Is this what I believe?
Is this what I believe?
That no one loves, no one to wait for
Does no one care?

Don't give up now
Don't give up the bit of blue sky
You've got to go to find it
Where all the lights shine brighter
