Permission Slip

Mainland

I'm pissed, I'm stripped
Of all my faith and everyone I missed
You talk, big talk
Like you're so right and I'm so wrong
But I don't need no, permission slip
I don't need no, kiss on the lips
I'm doing fine, doing my time,
Buying wine and drinking all alone at night

So cool it down and tell me,
"I'll be fine by the morning"
We're free to run, run, run, run, run
We're free to do whatever we want

So cool it down and tell me,
"I'll be fine by the morning"
We're free to run, run, run, run, run
We're free to do whatever we want

You crash, I laugh
You take me for a fool while I do your math
Been pushed around
One too many times, now the money's out

But I don't need no, permission slip
I don't need no, kiss on the lips
I'm doing fine, doing my time
Buying wine and drinking all alone at night

So cool it down and tell me,
"I'll be fine by the morning"
We're free to run, run, run, run, run
We're free to do whatever we want

So cool it down and tell me,
"I'll be fine by the morning"
We're free to run, run, run, run, run
We're free to do whatever we want

So cool it down and tell me,

"I'll be fine by the morning"
We're free to run, run, run, run, run
We're free to do whatever we want

So cool it down and tell me,
"I'll be fine by the morning"
We're free to run, run, run, run, run
We're free to do whatever we want
