If Promises Were Gold

Linda Davis

She knows three years was too long to keep waitin'
But somehow she was hopin' she would change him
Still all his words turned to dust
And who can survive in a love without trustIf promises were gold she could pay off all the bills
And buy that pretty house sitting high on the hill
If she only had the money for every lie she's been told
She'd be a rich woman now, if promises were goldBy six o'clock he'll miss her rusty Chevy Won't take long to notice dinner isn't ready
Then he'll call up everyone she knows
Sayin' I'll do her right if she'll only come homeIf promises were gold she could pay off all the bills
And buy that pretty house sitting high on the hill
If she only had the money for every lie she's been told
She'd be a rich woman now, if promises were goldShe didn't take much
Just the heart she once wore on her sleeve
She's leaving behind
Every line she tried to believeIf promises were gold she could pay off all the bills
And buy that pretty house sitting high on the hill
If she only had the money for every lie she's been told
She'd be a rich woman now, if promises were gold
