

No Gods, No Masters

Guff

Do you ever wonder about troubles in your life?

Do you ever ask a man want to take his life?

Raise your hands to the sky
to try and blind your eyes

You've spent all your time waiting to find something real to depend on.

Not me!

No god to rely on for me

Only you can save yourself

Do you ever get the feeling in the middle of the night, uptight and it won't go away?
or do you choose to ignore all the problems and the lies that surround us everyday?

So close your eyes!

Close your eyes!

And pretend nothing's wrong and just live life along with the rest of messes.

Not me!

No god to rely on for me, only you can save
yourself from this hell.

So take a look at your life what are you trying to say everybody's got a role to play

So take a look at my life what am I trying to say
I never thought that things would be this way.

So close your eyes
and pretend there's nothing wrong.

And I despise
the lies that help you carry on.

So close your eyes!
The lies you depend on?

Not me!

The lies you depend on?
Not me!

No god to rely on for me, only you can save
yourself from this hell.

No god to rely on
No shoulder to cry on.
No god to rely on for me
