

Reflection

Souljahz

I wanna smile, I wanna laugh, I wanna cry
Want You to see Your reflection in my face
The brilliance of Your smile let's me know
That You care for me, always there for me
And You'll never let me go
Every minute of my time, every hour of my life
Every second of everyday, I will praise Your holy name, yeah
I wanna smile, I wanna laugh, I wanna cry
I wanna make it through the day
'Cause there's no stoppin' me when You're by my side
Oh Lord, want You to see Your reflection in my face
I can see the hourglass of time fadin' away
With no excuses for my shame
In a world that measures our success
By where we're at but not how we got there
I think we're sinking deeper everyday
If I had a dime for every tabloid mocking His return
I would be a millionaire, oh, and still they'd never learn
Use this fool to shame the wise
Remove the pride that blinds their eyes
Be my sail so I can drift way, oh Lord
I wanna smile, I wanna laugh, I wanna cry
I wanna make it through the day
'Cause there's no stopping me when You're by my side
Oh Lord, want You to see Your reflection in my face
Oh Lord, want You to see Your reflection in my face
I wanna smile, I wanna laugh, I wanna cry
I wanna make it through the day
'Cause there's no stopping me when You're by my side
Oh Lord, want You to see Your reflection in my face
I wanna smile, I wanna laugh, I wanna cry
I wanna feel You in my face
'Cause there's no stopping me when You're by my side
Oh Lord, want You to see Your reflection in my face
Want You to see Your reflection in my face
