

Cold War

Devo

I, I owe, owe you
Absolutely nothing
I, I know know you
Positively disagree I've heard it said that, "All is fair
In love and war" so what's life for?
You watch it go out the window
Stop and go back for more Go, go fight, fight punch
Your way to happiness
Go, go light, light or
You'll never be a big success I heard it said that, "All is fair
In love and war" so what's life for?
The boy and girl, two separate worlds
The endless tug of war Go, go fight, fight punch
Your way to happiness
Go, go light, light or
You'll never be a big success I've heard it said that, "All is fair
In love and war" so what's life for?
You watch it go out the window
Stop and go back I heard it said that, "All is fair
In love and war" so what's life for
The boy and girl, two separate worlds
The endless tug of war I, I owe, owe you
Absolutely nothing
