Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Follow me, I'll lead the way, your fears will soon overtake
Hide your infinite tears inside, it seeks your smallest break
Screaming as if nothing helps, you press on to survive
Playing out the fantasies of a force that keeps you alive I'll have you down on your knees
You play my fatal game
I'll satisfy your every need
You'll never be the same Take my hand, I'll show you how you've just one life to live
The road you're on goes straight to hell, your life is yours to give His fantasies of all of you are much too great to see
This world your living is so unreal, perfected just for me I'll have you down on your knees
You play my fatal game
I'll satisfy your every need
You'll never be the same I'll have you down on your knees
You play my fatal game
I'll satisfy your every need
You'll never be the same
