

Love Is Lies

Buzzcocks

Well I'm going out
I'm gonna find myself a lover
I'm gonna look until I drop
I'll never stop, I won't give up
In any way, shape or form Well I'm going out
I'm gonna find myself a girl
Take her out into the world
We'll learn to dance
We'll take a chance, we'll start romance
All over again Love is lies, love is eyes
Love is everything that's nice
Love is not as cold as ice
But that's what that means to me Well I'm going out
I'm gonna find myself someone
Going to see them just for fun
A love affair, but no one there
It's in my head now it's all gone Love is lies, love is eyes
Love is everything that's nice
Love is not as cold as ice
But that's what that means to me Well I'm going out
I'm gonna find myself a girl
Take her out into the world
We'll learn to dance, we'll take a chance
We'll start romance all over again Love is lies, love is eyes
Love is everything that's nice
Love is not as cold as ice
But that's what that means to me Well I'm going out
I'm gonna find myself someone
Going to see them just for fun
A love affair, but no one there
It's in my head, now it's all gone Love is lies, love is eyes
Love is everything that's nice
Love is not as cold as ice
But that's what that means to me Love is lies, love is eyes
Love is everything that's nice
Love is not as cold as ice
But that's what that means to me
