Jaybird

Drop in layback air or catch a grind backside air axle stall whatever comes to mind got enough speed to reach the sun annoying all the neighbors but its all just for fun if you bail knee slide out it won't hurt at all just come sliding right up the other wall grab your board try again its not just a game allie to tail totally insane all that I wanna do is skate laying on a session grinds on 31st street hoping that my face and the pavement won't meet pulling acid drops right off the van allie to the curb it's so easy to land pedestrians getting pissed they're always in my way but they can't make me stop I'll never go away late night shredding ripping up the local pool hear the man coming stash the boards and play it cool
